

COOL KATZ

Guarded windows in the night sky
We can only see in
I was told it's reserved solely for the chosen
Only those who have not sinned
Let me know whose up there right now
Is Big C, is funny George?
'Cuz if they ain't at the fancy party
I'll take the rager in the mountain gorge

And we'll all dance the night away
I hear Satan is the DJ
Take my hand, you'll surely know
This is the place the cool katz go

Purity never appealed to me
Didn't sound like too much fun
The night became my playground
To hide misdeeds from the judging sun
Feeling young and reckless
We go out and bring together all of those
Who swear to stay up 'til the crack of dawn
Friends, lovers and foes

And we'll all dance the night away
I hear Satan is the DJ
Take my hand, you'll surely know
This is the place the cool katz go

My mother and father
Sat me down at a very early age
Told me I need to know what my future holds
I got to know what's on the next page, but...
Can't see the road ahead
I can't see if the lights are on inside
Not knowing keeps me going
The mystery will keep you alive

Or you'll work your hunger away
The kind that gives us each one more day
You cannot stand your ground and keep on running
So pick one, it's all or nothing
Oh you can hide amongst the privileged and the divine
Come on and join your own kind

And we'll all dance the night away
I hear Satan is the DJ
Take my hand, you'll surely know
This is the place the cool katz go
