

I WON'T GO

Into blackness we're sent running around
Where no one is ever found
There is nothing for us to remember ourselves
All we got is our killing shells

But I, I won't go
You can try but no, no, no, no
Not for you, not for them
Not for any of their friends
Oh I won't go

Into the fire, into their souls
We'd be put while they sit at home
Just to fight, just to love
All their fucking lives above

But I, I won't go
You can throw me out in the road
Bring your heat, bring your smite
Tell them I won't fight
Oh I won't go

At the end of the day you will have thrived
Off the deaths of those dead and alive
Soon everyone, they will see
All they've done is protect rich man's property

And they, they won't go
Your control will no longer flow
Maybe then you'll realize
Not to cut all your ties
And you will be the one to go
You will be the one to go
You will be the one
