

JOHNNY

Johnny can't run ahead 'cuz of what he left behind
Young hearts he tore one too many times
She stood in the doorway, he stood in the road
Hands in his pocket, it was so cold
Johnny'd gone without looking back every other time before
But now tonight he couldn't shut the door

For some reason you got me
Nothing's felt this real but I don't feel so free
For some reason you got me
Straight through my heart for all the world to see
Tell me, tell me

Late last June she walked into that bar
All the guys watched from afar
Johnny was entranced, as the lights grew dim
She looked up and winked at him
He asked her to dance as the drummer counted four
They took hands and walked out to the floor

For some reason you got me
Nothing's felt this real but I don't feel so free
For some reason you got me
Straight through my heart for all the world to see
Tell me, tell me

His lover stepped back and put her hand on the door
Wondered if Johnny, if he'd give more
But the sky had grown dark, he looked into her eyes
All he saw was a world he used to despise
Johnny couldn't understand how his life began to crack
He took a step down that road and never came back

For some reason you got me
Nothing's felt this real but I don't feel so free
For some reason you got me
Straight through my heart for all the world to see
Tell me, tell me, tell me
