

JOIN

I can't stay out all night
I can't keep running towards the light
Not knowing whether or not you're gonna join me
I can't keep wandering through the air
Noticing it's unfair
And sensing I can't make it without you

But I know I'll still break through
And find this hidden clue
The one that's caught in trenches of the dark
What else can I do

I see the hand you've shown
How you're out on your own
And it seems that things are better off
But you'll realize soon
That your quest for the moon
Will be done without the stars overhead

And you'll crawl back to my feet
And the heart of the drum will beat
Again we'll be cast in the future and the past
Where both of us will meet

Let the voices take us
To the place we're meant to be
Let your sorrows leave you
Have them stay below the sea
And you know that I need you
Almost as much as you need me
You could go the distance alone
But you will never be free
