

LADY IN BLACK

I woke up late last night with a thought swirling 'round my head
I saw a woman oh so fine in a bar as I walked in Dressed in all black she had the body of an angel in hell
Leather jacket, tight jeans, her eyes met mine and I fell

Oh yeah now it's time
Yeah yeah, baby, you're mine

Lady in black, lady in black
I think I'm in love
Lady in black, lady in black
I can't get enough

Tattoos and piercings, oh she had it all
I thought man oh man, maybe she won't care that I ain't tall
Her boots went up to her knees and her hair looked just like gold
She walked the swagger of a girl who never does what she's told

Oh yeah now it's time
Yeah yeah yeah, baby, you're mine

Lady in black, lady in black
I think I'm in love
Lady in black, lady in black
I bet you like it rough
