

LYRICS TO MY SOUL

When you leave the sky will turn from bright to gray
When you leave the stars will have nothing more to say
I can smell the oranges in your front yard when I drive by
That scent will mean so much more to me

'Cuz you know the lyrics to my soul
You're the only one who does
You know what I'm feeling by the look in my eyes
'Cuz you know the lyrics to my soul
You're the only one who does
Please, baby, sing them to me

Oh, baby, don't be gone so long
Come back to me
Oh, baby, don't cry so long
Just smile for me, yeah

The memories I have of you are what's getting me by
We shared love, laughter and our hobbies
Driving by your house I can smell that orange scent
A hug right now would feel like I won the lottery

'Cuz you know the lyrics to my soul
You're the only one who does
You know what I'm feeling by the look in my eyes
'Cuz you know the lyrics to my soul
You're the only one who does
Please, baby, sing them to me
Please, baby, sing them to me
Please, baby, sing them to me
